

U.S. Exchange Opportunities for University Students

Global Undergraduate Exchange Program (GLOBAL UGRAD)

The Global UGRAD Program is a merit-based scholarship for outstanding undergraduate students to study in the U.S. for one semester in a non-degree full-time study program. Participants have the opportunity for in-depth exposure to U.S. society, culture, and academic life by engaging in substantive courses and community service at U.S. universities.

MEPI Student Leaders Program

This intensive 5-week summer training program is held at four U.S.-based universities for undergraduate and graduate students (age 20-24) from the Middle East and North Africa. Students learn about leadership, civil society, and government processes and how to apply these skills in their home countries. Applicants should have a demonstrated commitment to community and extracurricular university activities.

SUSI Student Leaders on Entrepreneurship and Economic Development

This intensive short-term academic program provides groups of undergraduate student leaders interested in entrepreneurship and economic development with a deeper understanding of the United States, while enhancing their leadership skills. The five-week summer institute will consist of a series of seminar discussions, readings, group presentations, and lectures.

SUSI Student Leaders on Women's Leadership

This intensive short-term academic program is intended to provide groups of undergraduate female student leaders with a deeper understanding of the United States, while simultaneously enhancing their leadership skills. This five-week summer program will examine the history and participation of women in public life in the United States.

Fulbright Study Grants

Each year the Moroccan American Commission for Educational and Cultural Exchange awards Study Grants for up to two years of study at a U.S. university for a master's degree. Study Grant Scholarships cover all expenses and are offered for all fields except medicine and law. Moroccans who hold a Bachelor's degree (licence) or the equivalent of a 3-year university degree are eligible to apply.

Calls for applications are announced on our website and Facebook page
