§ 8

Personal data protection

1. The personal data controller for Participants of the Competition shall be the Organizer.
2. Personal data shall be used for the purposes of:
 - 1) organization of the Competition on the principles set out in the Regulations (legal basis - Article 6 item 1 letter e of the GDPR) - "a task carried out in the public interest",
 - 2) implementation of the Organizer's legal obligations related to the organization of the Competition (legal basis - art.6 item 1 letter c of the GDPR) - "a legal obligation",
 - 3) investigations or defence against any claims related to the organization of the Competition or the need to demonstrate certain facts that are significant in this respect for the Organizer (legal basis - art. 6 item 1 letter f of the GDPR) - "a legitimate interest"; deadlines for pursuing claims arising from the agreement are specified in the Polish Civil Code.

3. The submission of the Competition participant's personal data to the extent beyond the scope indicated in § 4 item 2 of the Regulations (e.g. a photo in the CV) shall be considered to have been made on the basis of consent expressed by the participant (legal basis - Article 6 item 1 letter a of the GDPR) - "a consent".
4. The data shall not be used to make decisions based solely on the automated processing of personal data, including profiling within the meaning of art. 22 of the GDPR.
5. The data shall be used for the period necessary to achieve the purposes indicated in item 2 above. Depending on the legal basis, this shall be respectively:
 - 1) the period of organization of the Competition and implementation of activities related to it,
 - 2) the period indicated in relevant provisions of law,
 - 3) claims limitation period,
 - 4) the period until the possible withdrawal of the consent.
6. The Participant shall have the right to withdraw the consent for personal data processing –which shall regard the data processed on its basis. Withdrawal of the consent shall not affect the lawfulness of the use of data during the period when the consent was in force.
7. Transfer of data within the scope indicated in § 4 item 2 of the Regulations shall be voluntary, but necessary for the Participant to take part in the Competition. Refusal to provide the data shall mean that a person may not participate in the Competition. Transfer of data within a scope exceeding the scope indicated in § 4 item 2 of the Regulations shall be voluntary.
8. The data subject shall have the right to submit the application regarding:
 - 1) access to his/her personal data,
 - 2) rectification of the data,
 - 3) data transfer (in cases specified in the GDPR),
 - 4) data deletion or limitation of data processing- on the terms set out in the GDPR.
9. The data subject shall also have the right to:
 - 1) object to data processing if the legal basis for the use of data is a legitimate interest (art. 6 item 1 letter f of GDPR) or task carried out in the public interest (art. 6 item 1 letter e of GDPR),
 - 2) lodge a complaint to the President of the Personal Data Protection Office if it is determined that personal data are not used in accordance with the provisions of law.
10. The Participants' data may be transferred –apart from persons authorized by the Organizer - to other entities, including: entities authorized to receive them in accordance with the provisions of law, entities processing it on behalf of the Organizer (e.g. cooperating with the Organizer in implementing the Competition) and other controllers (e.g. notarial or legal offices).
